Several days ago Mr. Williams was notified that bales of cloth purchased recently at a nominal figure were being placed on the market at a much higher price. After Department of Justice agents had investigated five representatives of the concerns of Sipkine Gerschen of 15 East Twenty-sixth street, Weinreld & Horowitz of 1140 Broadway, and Hyman & Pinder of 138 East Twenty-fifth street were called into Mr. Willlama's office.

SOCIALISTS FACED BY OWN WAR VOTES

the labor of able bodied male persons setween the ages of 18 and 60 not engaged in a lawful business, occupation, trade or profession. With the exception of the last named bill, which was opposed by Assemblyman J. Fairfax McLaughlin, the Socialists measures mentioned.

Mr. Stedman objected to the testimony concerning the attitude of the Socialists the general appropriations bills, which covered the naval and military maintenance appropriations on the ground that, as the bill included many the Socialists objected, but the evidence was admitted after It had been shown that the only votes recorded in the negafive were those of the Socialist members Mr. Stedman also objected to the testiony of the Socialists' attitude on the regarding desecration of the flag on the ground that it provided for only 10,000 copies to be circulated among 11,000,000 The Socialists, he said, thought that an insufficient number, but Mr.

Conboy's rejoinder that they did not want even 10,000 sent out drew no reply. At the completion of this line of tes-mony Mr. Stedman asked to have it all stricken from the record on the ground that the Socialists were not harged with having voted improperly on any measure presented to the House His objection was overruled.

Algernon Lee, former Socialist Alder-uan of New York city, was the chief witness of the day and was examined at length by Martin Conboy.

Mr. Conboy questioned him as to the reason for the adoption of a general strike provision in the Socialist manifesto drawn at the Chicago convention

September, 1919. Lee admitted that it was his opinion that conditions at that time did not warrant the calling of a general strike. but said that the provision was adopted against the day when it might be regarded as necessary. He falled, howexer, to reconcile this with testimony yesterday that the anti-sabotage clause had been eliminated from the constitu-tion in 1917 because the element advo-

caring sabotage had eliminated itself from the party.

A State conference of civic and labor organizations has been called here for to-morrow afternoon to protest against the ousting of the Socialist Assembly-men. The affair has been called under the auspices of the committee of sevenand will meet at the Sons of Italy Hall at 1 o'clock. About 300 representatives are expected, including delegations from the Central Federated Union, the City Club of New York, the Women's Trade Union League and the Humanitarian League. Labor unions in practically every city in the State will be represented, and the speakers will in-clude Edward I. Hannah, president of the Central Federated Union; Alfred Trayes and McAlister Coleman of the committee of forty-ght; Judg Jacob Panken and Abraham Shplacoff of New

GAYNOR'S PROTEGE OUT AGAIN.

Duffy's Jury Diangrees and He Is Released in $1,500 Bail.

The argument of Mirabeau L. Towns. friend of former Mayor Gaynor, obtained for George B. Duffy, 32, long Mayor Gaynor's protege in the courts, a semi-vindication before Justice Kapper in Brooklyn yesterday. The jury went later, confessing inability to reach an agreement. The jurors were discharged, and Duffy was released in $1,500 ball while the District Attorney decides whether to try-the case again.

Duffy was accussed of stealing three cases of whiskey in May, 1919, from John A. Kasa's saloon at 85 Third avenue, Brooklyn, but Mr. Towns built up an allbi, and contended that Duffy found an allbi, and contended that Duffy found the whiskey the day after the robbely, not knowing the goods were stolen.
